Red wines

175ml 250ml Bottle

Sangiovese 'I Colombi' Toscana

£31.00

Tuscany, Italy.

Sangiovese.

The combination of fresh red cherry fruit and creamy vanilla (from the 12 months spent in oak) is superbly balanced, resulting in a wine that punches well above its weight.

175ml 250ml Bottle

Querceto Chianti Classico

£49.00

Tuscany, Italy.

Sangiovese.

Brilliant ruby red with soft and elegant texture. Fruity aromas, balanced with herbal notes.

Campo Tordi Corvina, Righetti

£31.50

Veneto, Italy.

Corvina.

Made from Corvina, the primary varietal in Valpolicella Classico and Amarone della Valpolicella, this wine is fermented in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks instead of Slavonian oak barrels. This process creates a fresher, fruitier expression with bright red cherry notes and a subtle bitter almond finish, featuring light tannins and balanced acidity.

Barolo Araldica

£62.00

Piedmont, Italy.

Nebbiolo.

A complex nose combining mulberry, ripe strawberry and brown spice with delicate floral and violet notes. Robust on the palate with chunky bitter cherry and plum fruit and structured tannins.

Cincinnato Nero Buono

£36.50

Lazio, Italy.

Nero Buono.

Ruby red colour with purple highlights; intense and fragrant nose with scents of red fruits; delicate fruity palate, with an elegant complexity.

Capitel de Roari Amarone Classico

£73.00

Veneto, Italy.

Corvina, Rondinella.

A well-balanced Amarone that still exhibits much of the dark fruit flavours, earth and meaty components expected of this DOCG. Aromas of black cherry and prunes joined by beefy and earthy aromas. Moves along the palate nicely with a mix of dark and dried fruit with some meatiness on the finish. Elegant but exhibiting good concentration.

Valpolicello DOC Pasqua

£39.50

Veneto, Italy.

Corvina, Rondinella.

The wine is fresh, with scents that recall red fruits such as redcurrants and raspberries. On the palate it is well-structured, rounded and harmonious, with evident red fruit notes.
